

Pretty Dangerous

So pretty, so perfectly formed.
Pity you're so promiscuous, attaching yourself to all and sundry regardless of age, race or creed.
You infiltrate and multiply spreading your genome like wildfire.
As fast and as destructive.
What is the point of your existence?
Is it to cull humankind
before we outgrow our own planet?
Covid 19 my wish for you
is that you fizzle and burn like a candle. No wick left.
Never to return.
